DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of fenofibrate as the second drug is noted.

Claims 7-10, 13-15 remain withdrawn from further consideration as being drawn to non-elected subject matter.

Newly submitted claims 33-38 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: they encompass a kit which has separate components from the claimed combination and a method of using the claimed combination which can be used in different methods such treating wounds.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 33-38 are withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

The restriction requirement is made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

> (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 2, 4-6, and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Curtet et al., EP 96400133, JP 401254624 or JP 405194209 taken with EP 521471, Liao et al. or WO 99/22728.

Since the references each teach that the individual components of the composition are known in the art to be used for the same purpose, then it is obvious to combine them into a single composition.

It is well known that it is prima facie obvious to combine two or more ingredients each of which is taught by the prior art to be useful for the same purpose in order to form a third composition which is useful for the same purpose. The idea for combining them flows logically from their having been used individually in the prior art. In re Sussman, 1943 C.D. 518; In re Pinten, 459 F.2d 1053, 173 USPQ 801 (CCPA 1972); In re Susi, 58 CCPA 1074, 1079-80; 440 F.2d 442, 445; 169 USPQ 423, 426 (1971); In re Crockett, 47 CCPA 1018, 1020-21; 279 F.2d 274, 276-277; 126 USPQ 186, 188 (1960).

Applicants argue that the individual components are allegedly not obvious to combine together because they supposedly would have hade negative effects on the body but the fact of the matter is that the law is clear in this area. If the components are used individually in the prior art for the same purpose then to combine them into one composition is prima facie obvious. Applicant's direction is once again directed to the above case law which was provided for applicant's use. The law is clear and so is this rejection. Speculation by the applicant and others may have been at one time but it was clear that the components were each known individually in the art to be used for the same purpose. Thus, by definition, it is obvious to combine them into one composition to be used to treat the same purpose as before they were combined.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
